

STOP PILING ON AMERICAN SENIORS

AMERICANS DO NOT WANT A COMMISSION BECAUSE IT WILL CUT SOCIAL SECURITY.

Millions of Americans rely on Social Security for their economic well-being, especially in these difficult financial times.

Creating a commission is not the answer.

Fiscal discipline is needed, but not at the cost of crippling Social Security and making seniors the scapegoats for the excesses of Wall Street. Our elected officials should ensure Social Security remains strong and secure.

National Committee to Preserve
Social Security and Medicare

Barbara B. Kennelly
President and CEO
www.ncpssm.org
1-800-966-1935