Social Security Contributes Billion$ to Vermont’s Economy

In Vermont there are 150,319 Social Security beneficiaries, including:

- 106,070 Retired Workers
- 21,828 Disabled Workers
- 7,927 Widow(er)s
- 5,101 Spouses
- 9,393 Children

Social Security benefits provide $2.4 billion each year to Vermont’s economy

Social Security provides a lifeline to beneficiaries, their families, and the local businesses which serve them. While some in Washington claim America can’t afford programs like Social Security and Medicare, the truth is states like Vermont can’t afford to lose the economic benefits they provide to every community in the state.
