Social Security contributes billions of dollars to Wyoming’s economy.

In Wyoming there are 112,386 Social Security beneficiaries, including:

- 82,101 Retired Workers
- 13,266 Disabled Workers
- 6,713 Widow(er)s
- 3,804 Spouses
- 6,502 Children

Social Security benefits provide $1.8 billion each year to Wyoming’s economy.

Social Security provides a lifeline to beneficiaries, their families, and the local businesses which serve them. While some in Washington claim America can’t afford programs like Social Security and Medicare, the truth is states like Wyoming can’t afford to lose the economic benefits they provide to every community in the state.
